

October 2017

Happy fall!

Topic of the month: Candy

Artist of the month: Miro

Country of the month: India

This new topic will help guiding our student through the exploration of the theme, will allow us to reinforce their creative thinking, and motivate them to create new ways to connect to Candy. The main objective is for children to have fun and learn about Candy through exploring with all of their senses and reflecting the many uses of Candy in the World. We will discuss and learn about Joan Miro and India too.

SPECIAL NEWS

Parents please remember that we are a Nut Free Facility. Therefore we cannot accept any snacks with peanuts, almonds, pistachios or any type of nuts. For our "fall Festival" we advise you to bring small trinkets and non-peanut related candies. Thank you to all the parents who made monetary donations for the Hurricane Relief fund of Irma.

Last day for our Fall Fundraiser will be on Friday Oct 6th 2017, a portion of your purchase goes to our school ☺
Scholastic book catalogs will be sent home this week. All purchased orders can be dropped off the office.

FALL FESTIVAL

Fall Festival is finally here! We are going to celebrate it on Friday, October 27th, children will dress up in their favorite costume and we will go around the school enjoying different activities and collecting lots of goodies. We will be sending an email with the complete information of the Festival. We can't wait to celebrate and have fun! We are excited and will like to organize a group of moms who would like to volunteer in the decorations for our classroom doors. The best voted door will receive a prize! It is not mandatory, however your participation is highly encouraged. Children enjoy seeing their parents involved in the school activities. Please let your respective teacher know if you will like to participate. ☺

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

It's not too late to register for the extracurricular classes, if you are still interested and you want a trial class please let us know. We see how our children enjoy the diversity of our classes, and this is a great opportunity for reinforcing important and necessary values like team work, independence, and determination as well as persistence and tolerance. The classes that we are currently offering are:

- Soccer 9:00-9:30 am Mondays
- Tennis 9:30-10:30 am Tuesdays (Starting Oct 10th)
- Ballet 9:30-10:30 Thursdays
- Robotics 10:00-11:00 Fridays

We currently offer included with the school's tuition Music on Tuesdays and Physical Education on Wednesdays.
